

Abstract of Disclosure

027- Process allows for a customer to anonymously use a card at a point of sale to complete a transaction. No personal identification is required to establish an account at the Reprove card center, and no personal information is required at consumer vendor or merchant point of sale merchant to complete the transaction.